

Iliana Haverlock

Email: ilianahaverlock@gmail.com

Phone: (614) 354-2489

Research Interests

19th Century and Renaissance Literature, and Critical/Cultural Theory: feminist theory, historicism.

Education

M.A. in English Literature, The Ohio State University. Expected Graduation May 2028

B.A. in English Literature, minor in Sociology, Capital University. December 2023

GPA: 3.8, magna cum laude

Certificate in Digital Humanities, Harvard edX. May 2024

Writing and Editing Experience

PhD Thesis Editing, Freelance, August 2024 - Present

Writing Consultant, Capital University Academic Success, May 2021 - December 2023

Content Editor/Writer, IC3D Printers, December 2023 - March 2024

Teaching Experience

Preschool Teacher, Linworth Children's Center, February 2025 - February 2026

K-12 Teacher, A Grade Ahead, August 2024 - February 2025

Library and Archival Experience

Public Services Associate, Upper Arlington Public Library, October 2025 - August 2026

Archaeology Lab Assistant (Intern), Ohio History Center, December 2022 - July 2023

Volunteer Work

President and Founder, Satellite Rotary Club of Victorian Village

Grant Reader, The Women's Fund

Transcriptionist, Smithsonian Institution

Citizen Archivist, National Archives

Technical Skills

Google Workspace, Microsoft Office, SEO, HTML, XML, Technical Writing, APA, MLA, Chicago Style Guides

Presentations

"The Monstrous Woman: Tracking Dissociative Feminism from Frankenstein to Fleabag."

National Conference on Undergraduate Research (NCUR), University of

Wisconsin-Eau Claire, WI, April 2023

Publications

“The Monstrous Woman: Tracking Dissociative Feminism from Frankenstein to Fleabag”
(Revise and Resubmit at the Journal of Undergraduate Research and Scholarly Excellence)

Honors & Awards

2023 NCUR Travel Grant Recipient
2023 Provost’s List, Capital University
2022 President’s List, Capital University