THE ROBERT E. REITER PRIZE FOR CRITICAL ANALYSIS

This award is designed to recognize critical/scholarly writing at the undergraduate level. To be eligible for this award, the applicant (1) must be/have been an undergraduate student at Ohio State (open to all undergraduates, regardless of major, as well as to recent graduates from Ohio State) and (2) must submit a critical/scholarly essay completed in an English course offered during Spring 2014, Summer 2014, or Fall 2014 (essays written as part of other courses or in earlier terms will not be considered). The recipient of this award will receive an invitation to the English Department’s annual awards ceremony, which will take place in late April, and a $500 honorarium.

Questions
Contact Pablo Tanguay, Undergraduate Studies Academic Program Manager, tanguay.1@osu.edu.

Deadline
Friday, January 30, 2015, at 5:00 PM

Where to Drop Off Completed Application
Denney Hall, Room 421, English Department Office
Please ask the front desk assistants to place your completed application in Pablo Tanguay’s mailbox.

Name ____________________________________________

Last               First               Middle

Local address _______________________________________

Local or cell phone ___________________________ E-mail address _______________________________________

College in which you are currently enrolled here at Ohio State _______________________________________

Intended major(s) (award is open to all undergraduates, regardless of major, as well as to recent graduates provided the paper submitted was written for a course offered during the terms listed above)

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Expected date of OSU graduation _________________________________

Please provide the following info for the critical/scholarly essay that you are submitting for consideration.

Essay title ________________________________________________

Title of English course for which essay was written _________________________________

Circle the term in which you completed this course:  Spring 2014       Summer 2014       Fall 2014

Course # ___________ Course instructor ________________________________

To complete your application, you will need to submit this form along with the following:
A clean copy of your critical/scholarly essay. The pages of your essay should be numbered and stapled together.