THE ROBERT E. REITER PRIZE FOR CRITICAL ANALYSIS

This award is designed to recognize critical/scholarly writing at the undergraduate level. To be eligible for this award, the applicant must (1) be/have been an undergraduate student at Ohio State (open to all undergraduates, regardless of major, as well as to recent graduates from Ohio State) and (2) have completed a critical or scholarly essay as part of an Ohio State English course at the 3000-level or higher during the immediately previous Fall, Summer, or Spring semesters (essays completed during earlier semesters will not be considered). The recipient of this award will receive an invitation to the English Department’s annual awards ceremony, which will take place in late April, and a $500 honorarium.
