

VIRGINIA HULL DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION AWARD

The Virginia Hull Diversity and Inclusion Award is given annually to an English major from an underrepresented OSU student population who contributes to the inclusive excellence of the university through academics and/or community impact. The award is open to all underrepresented English majors who are not graduating in the semester in which the award is given. The recipient of this award will receive an invitation to the Department of English's annual awards ceremony, which will take place in late April, and a $2,000 scholarship.
